Accolade focuses on David's success

A WEDDING video specialist based in Holywell, has won a top accolade.

David Pearson of David Pearson Videography and North Wales Wedding Videos, has been awarded a Master Membership of the Institute of Videography (IOV) – a UK-based trade association, which promotes professionalism in video production.

The IOV has more than 1,000 members in the UK and Europe specialising in event, corporate and freelance video services.

Accredited members first have to pass online exams to achieve Associate Membership, while full accreditation is not awarded until after satisfactory samples of work have been submitted to an assessment panel.

David's company specialises in wedding videos and small production videos, and he is very proud to have achieved this recognition for his work.

He said: "There are some wedding video companies out there that are not qualified, but I believe it is very important that my clients are reassured that they know they are hiring a professional and experienced videographer to produce a professional video of their special day.

"The IOV accreditation provides that seal of approval."
